KEENE ENTRY IS FAVORED.

NEW YORKERS THINK A CASTLETON-BRED HORSE WILL WIN FUTURITY.

De Mund Is Next Best Liked and Horace E. Ranks Third Among the Overnight Speculators-Big Crowd Is Expected.

New York, August 31.—The Futurity of 1906, the richest turf prize in America, which is to be decided at Sheepshead Bay tomorrow, will bring to gether one of the best all-around fields of two-year olds that have ever competed for the great race. Of the sixteen starters, betting favors the Keene entry, and already several large wagers have been made and taken on the success of the Castleton-bred trio—Peter Pan, Pope Joan and Zambesi. They are grouped in the betting at odds of 8 to 5 to win. The presence of the Rainey Brothers' sensational pair—De Mund and Horace E.—adds an intensely interesting angle to the struggle as well as veiling the outcome with a most perplexing uncertainty. It is conceded that if De Mund stays he has the best chance to win of all, in view of his lightning ability to get away from the post, an all important in a race of this character. Horace E.'s took a big slump after his poor showing at big slump after his poor showing at Saratoga, and despite reports of recent sensational workouts, experts are not taking the Missouri-bred colt seriously. Eager expectancy, however, marks the appearance of Conville and horsemen generally that, if the leaders at the end of the first mile show any signs of weakening, Hitchcock's crack colt will pick them up and put them away comfortably at the finish.

Weather indications for tomorrow are favorable and the Coney Island Jockey Club is making preparations to accommodate the largest throng of the year. It is estimated that the attendance will be

TOOTS MOOK WINS WINDSOR FEATURE.

Detroit, Mich., August 31.—This was Ladies' day and there was a big crowd at Windsor. Seven races were on the card and, while only two pro-nounced favorites won, the public generally got the best of the layers on the second and third choices that won. The race for all ages, at five and a half furlongs, brought out the best sprinters at the track. Charlie Eastman was considered to have the race at his mercy and was well backed on. As the horses were called to the post was made for the betting ring and the went on Toots Mook as if it was educated money" over. At post time 7 to 5 was the best to be
At the start Charlie Eastman was first to Show, closely followed by Toots Mook, and after quarter of a mile was passed the two hooked up nd ran as a team to the finish. Charlie Eastman with riders reversed, would have won, as Hogg seemed to be over-confident and he lost the decision by the shortest of margins. All of the races today, with the exception of one, were of the nose and head order, the general opinion was that it was the best day's racing ever seen at the Windsor track.

G. B. Morris sold today to Dr. McQueen the hestnut filly Sweet Kitty, by Toddington—Mamie Jockeys Lee and Shilling were fined $10 for diso at the post in the first race and Fisch got $25 in the second. Kunz drew a fine of $10 in the fourth and jockey Kelly drew a three days' suspension for pulling up at the start in the sixth.

VANDERBILT BUYS YEARLINGS IN FRANCE.

At a recent sale of yearlings in France, a colt named Poor Boy, by Perth, out of Philoe, brought $13,200, the highest price of the year in that country. The purchaser was S. B. Joel. At the same sale W. K. Vanderbilt gave $11,200 for Montavalle, a colt by St. Damien, out of Marcia, the dam of Maintenon, which has carried Mr. Vanderbilt's colors with such success this season. The same gentleman also gave $4,800 for Sea Sick, a strong Elf, out of Saf-Saf (by Le Sancy), and $3,800 for Gambaiseuil, a colt by St. Damien, out of Gracieuse. The chief honors of the sales have been for St. Damien, which is now one of the most popular stallions in France.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE FUTURITY.

This day will be marked in racing history by the nineteenth running of the Futurity. The first Futurity was won by a western horse, the famous Proctor Knott. Since then the big race has generally fallen to an eastern owner, but Ogden, Savable and Ormondale have followed the example of Proctor Knott and won for the west, while Martimas enabled Canada to once claim its honors. Although its value fluctuates, it is the richest stake of the world for two-year-olds. Its high-mark year was in 1890, when it had a gross value of $77,000, of which $67,675 fell to the winner, Potomac. It was least valuable in 1899, when Chacornac won for James R. Keene. That year its gross was $41,000 and its net $30,636. Generally speaking, its winners have been excellent racehorses in subsequent years. L'Alouette was the lowest class horse that ever took its honors, but Proctor Knott, Potomac, Morello, Domino, The Butterflies, Requifal, Savable, Hamburg Belle and Artful were of very high class. The condensed history of the big race is as follows:

COULDN'T STAND THE HOLD UP.

Ort Wells, of Chicago, Charles Gates and two ladies were passing down Broadway in Saratoga one night recently. The attention of Ort Wells was attracted to a colored photograph of the Advance Stakes of 1904, showing Bryn Mawr. Ort Wells and Highball racing together. Mr. Wells, because of the sentimental recollections of the once great horse named after him, said to the man in charge:

"How much for that picture?"
"Twenty-five dollars," was the answer.
"I'll take it," said Mr. Wells.

"Beg pardon, its price is fifty dollars," said the storekeeper.
"Nothing doing," said Mr. Wells, and the group sauntered on, laughing.

EASTERNERS HAVE AN EYE ON MINA GIBSON.

"Mina Gibson, which was entered for the sixth race, was scratched when her owner found the officials had ordered that her identity be fully estab-lished before she would be permitted to run," says the New York Sun. "Later it was whispered about that she had worked a very fast mile and a select coterie of westerners were to have backed her heavily."

Mina Gibson is probably a good racing tool. She is a three-year-old bay filly by Sir Dixon-Black-She was not raced as a two-year-old and has been to the post only once this year. That was at Fort Erie July 26. She was off badly, but ran a splendid race, finishing second to Am True Boy, three-quarters of a mile in 1:14%.

NEW SOUTH WALES HAS A SANE LAW.

A cablegram from Sydney, New South Wales, under date of August 30, says: "A radical antigaming and betting bill, which was passed by the assembly of New South Wales today, prohibits betting in clubs, shops, or street, and the publication of betting in newspapers before the events. We not rendering illegal betting on racecourses grounds devoted to sports, it empowers the pro-prietor to remove bettors and restricts the number of race meetings,'

PLAUSIBLE A BARGAIN FOR DR. ROWELL.

Plausible, which won a race at Saratoga Wednes day, is one of the bargains picked up at the summe sale at the Brighton Beach meeting. The Oneck Stable decided to reduce its string, and this youngster was one of the culls. When led into the auction ring it took considerable talking to get a bid on him. and when knocked down, the price was $200 and the JOCKEY IS KILLED AT A FAIR.

John McCune, a jockey riding on the minor circuits, was killed while warming up a horse at Mt. Joy, O., Thursday afternoon. A boy ran out upon the track directly in front of the horse and when the animal swerved to miss the lad, McCune lost his hold and the fall upon his head broke his neck. His home was in New York City.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT AND THE TURF.

"Horse racing is carried on in France for the benefit of the Government and the Army, and the State stud farms are being fed and continually served with new blood from the racecourses," says the London Sporting Life. "Attached to the conditions of certain races is the clause that the Government of certain races is the clause that the Government has the right to purchase the winner at price mentioned. Furthermore, the Government in-spector visits the training establishments every year and selects a number of stallions. He has completed his inspection at Chantilly Maison Laffite, and has selected nine horses which will be handed over to the administration des Haras Nationaux at the following prices: Mr. Eugene Leigh's Vieux Paris, by Simonian out of Verveine, £1,200; M. Joubert's Coq a l'Ane, by Regret out of Cocotte, £1,200; M. Broquiere's Georgiana, by Monsieur Gabriel out of Georgette, £1,000; Mr. R. Mills' Torquato Tasso, by Callistrate out of Thetis, £800; M. F. Charron's Ignorantin, by Miguel out of Volupte, £400; M. Dousdebes' Stilvio, by Palais Royal out of La Cordilliere, £400; Compte Hubert de Pourtales' Taiping. by Dolma Baghtche out of The Other Eye, £360; M. A. Merle's Saitapharnes, by Arbaces out of Seba tienne, £280, and Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt's Illinois, by Fripon out of Ildico, £240.

"Most of these horses have proved their by performances on the turf, and they represent many strains of the best blood. They will be valua-ble additions to the two hundred and odd thoroughbred stallions already possessed by the French Government. There is no army in the world so well horsed as the French army, and this is due to the wise association of state and sport. We never hear silly talk in France about ploughing up race We never courses, and happily for this country there is no nonconformist conscience to be squared in its coun-cils. In dealing with certain questions Frenchmen are far more honest and open-minded than Englishen, or at any rate a section of them.

"Racing in France is regarded as a great national industry to be encouraged, and politicians have apparently solved the difficult problem of how to control the speculation that must be inseparable from such industry, and at the same time bring revenue to the National Exchequer. The French turf was never in such a flourishing condition as now, and the horses in the country can hold their own against all comers. Are the men in England who rave so against racing ignorant or merely hypocritical? Surely, if they took the trouble to inform themselves, they would see of what great value to the country your thoroughbred studs but such studs could not exist without racing. France is certainly putting England to shame and setting her a great example in the way she con-

MADDEN SAYS CONVILLE WILL WIN.

The New York Herald of Thursday publishes the bllowing as a special from Saratoga:

J. E. Madden said today: "Conville will win the

TAME SPORT AT LATONIA.

FEATURE IS A STEEPLECHASE HANDICAP AND SUBADOR WINS.

Angleta's Defeat Proves Costly-Esterre an "Eagle Bird" for Bookmakers-Don Domo Is Lame Obert Case Is Not Settled

Cincinnati, O., August 31.-The attendance at Latonia today was unusually large, considering the Latonia today was unusually large, considering the fact that nothing out of the ordinary was carded for decision. The feature offering was a steeple-chase over the short course, in which seven started. Six finished and furnished a spectacular contest. The horses ran closely grouped for the greater portion of the journey. Subador, running in improved form, led for the entire distance and came home a handy winner from Wool Dealer. Frank Mc. was a distant third, tiring badly in the final drive. St. Volma fell when about to pass into the lead at the eighth fell when about to pass into the lead at the eighth jump. No injury resulted to horse or rider.

Three favorites were successful, but their victories did not seriously deplete the rolls of the book makers, as the betting on all of them was extremely light. Esterre, which won at 20 to 1, gave the light. Esterre, which won at 20 to 1, gave the bookmakers clean sheets. Angleta's defeat in the sixth race was a hard blow to most of the speculators. The Schreiber filly was considered a "rod in the pickle" and was supported with liberal confidence. Keyes, her rider, rode her poorly and caused her defeat. With good handling she would have wen off by besself. have won off by herself.
